Child Tax Credit (CTC) Expansion Overview
• Under the American Rescue Plan, almost every family can receive money from the Child Tax Credit. This includes families:
  o That haven’t filed a tax return o Without recent income
  o With a child with a social security number, even if they do not have one themselves

• Qualifying households will receive:
  o $3,600 for each child under 6 years old o $3,000 for each child between 6 and 17 years old

• Families can receive half of the payments in 2021 and the other half in 2022 after filing a tax return.

• The credit is not a loan. It does not impact public benefits.

• Impact of the CTC
  o Reduce child poverty by more than 40% ▪ Larger reductions for Black, Hispanic, and Native American children and children in deep poverty

• Advocates are working to make the CTC expansion permanent

The Portals

• Non-filer Portal allows you to: o Sign up for advance CTC payments
  o Claim the first and second stimulus checks as the Recovery Rebate Credit ▪ If you didn’t get the stimulus checks at all or didn’t get the full amount you are eligible for o Sign up for the third stimulus check

• Child Tax Credit Update Portal (CTC UP) allows you to: o Opt-out of advance payments o Change or add bank account information o Eventually, you will be able to update your:
    ▪ Income
    ▪ Marital status
    ▪ # of children

• To use CTC UP, you must create an account through the IRS or ID.me

CTC Non-filer Outreach

• Roughly 60 million children have already received CTC advance payments
  o These children are part of families that have filed taxes in 2019 or 2020 or used the EIP non-filer portal

• The challenge
  o Roughly 4 million or more children are not receiving automatic payments ▪ Report includes state by state numbers

• Prioritize for outreach parents and caregivers:
With very low incomes, including those who are self-employed
With lower education levels
With disabilities
With limited internet access, or smartphone-only internet access
Who are housing insecure
Who are Black or American Indian or Alaska Native and other groups of color
Who lack SSNs but whose children have SSNs
Who don’t speak English as their first language

- The opportunity
  - Help non-filers navigate challenges so they can submit their info to the IRS (using the Non-filer portal or filing a tax return)

Funding and Building the Case for Outreach (Aditi Shrivastava, Center on Budget and Policy Priorities)

- Too many families are continuing to experience hardships from the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic
  - Thankfully, families who have received stimulus payments or Earned Income Tax Credits (EITC) in prior years will most likely automatically receive CTC advance payments
  - However, those with the lowest incomes or no income may be more likely to have not filed taxes in prior years, and so will not automatically receive CTC advance payments
    - More than 4 million children may be in this situation
- Outreach to these 4 million or more children and their families is vital to the success of the CTC
  - Being innovative in your outreach efforts is key
- Outreach efforts require adequate funding
  - The funds that are available through the American Rescue Plan (ARP) at the state and local government level have a lot of flexibility
    - Use to set-up navigator programs
    - Strengthen and add capacity to existing efforts
      - Example: One place has established a subsidized jobs program as a work training program where trainees are working as navigators to help families access the CTC
  - Funding can also be found from local foundations and non-profits if you are not sure if you can access funds from the ARP
    - Example: At the national level, the Cities for Financial Empowerment Fund (CFE) has provided grants to 31 cities to develop financial navigator programs who are also linking families to the CTC
    - Private organizations like CFE and local ones are frequently looking for opportunities to ensure that people access the full benefits they are eligible and entitled for
- An outreach effort provides an optimum way for local, private organizations to ensure a maximum use of public dollars
  - You can make a solid case for why outreach efforts would be an excellent way for private funds to be used
Think through how each of the models presented by our panelists today could work in your own community

Think through how you would write-up that justification to private and public funders for why such an effort is necessary in your own community

Child Tax Credit Outreach in Philadelphia (Beth McConnell, Office of Community Empowerment and Opportunity)

- The CTC could lift 75,000 Philadelphians out of poverty
- CTC outreach funding comes from 3 places:
  - Community Service Block Grant from the Office of Community Empowerment and Opportunity
  - Private Foundations
    - The mayor’s policy office asked private foundations
  - General fund dollars from the City of Philadelphia’s budget
- 4-part strategy
  1. Boost capacity of tax prep partners
     a. Campaign for Working Families
     b. Ceiba Give tax prep partners dollars to staff up and stay open all the way through October and open again in 2022 from January through June 2. Craft a communications campaign
     a. Hired marketing and communications firm (branding, messaging, imagery) to place ads in local community papers
        i. Will be targeting non-filers
     b. Office of Community Empowerment and Opportunity also put together fact sheets and social media shareables in 9 languages
        i. Street teams hand out flyers outside grocery stores, dollar stores, and other places in lowest income neighborhoods
        ii. Digital bus shelters and kiosks
        iii. Door to door with vaccine outreach
        iv. Mail to foster care providers
  3. Resource and train community partners
     a. Hosted CTC portal navigator training with Community Legal Services and Campaign for Working Families
     b. Grassroots grants coming soon for grassroots community partners
  4. Data for outreach and evaluation
     a. Used social service data and Treasury zip code data to target kids in the lowest income households
        i. Found 64,000 children where their families are enrolled in TANF-related Medicaid or used emergency shelter services since the beginning of 2000
           1. 42,000 phone numbers
           2. 34,000 addresses
b. Upcoming:
   i. Test and evaluate outreach strategies (phone, text, mail, etc.)
      1. Working with researcher to see which of the methods most effective
   ii. Service Design Studio
      1. Customer experience filing
         a. Understand the process of going to tax prep partner or portal assistance partner and see how to make the process easier and more effective in the future
      2. Focus groups (non-filers)
         a. Understand why didn’t claim the CTC to learn what effective messaging and messenger can be used in the future to get them to take advantage of the credit

    - IRS backlog in processing ITIN applications
      - It takes 4-6 weeks to process ITIN application

Q&A

1. How do you know where non-filers are to focus your ads?
   a. Use data from the Treasury that shows zip-code by zip-code where the largest number of non-filers are, we’re going to use that data to target many of our outreach strategies
   b. Focus on key populations that may live in any part of the city, but that are highly likely to be non-filers

2. What are some examples of alternative identifications that banks might accept for individuals wanting to open a checking account to receive CTC advance payments?
a. It is specific to each financial institution. Some will accept:
   i. ITINs
   ii. Employment authorization documents
   iii. Tribal IDs
   iv. School IDs

3. Are there VITA sites outside of the tax season? How do you support folks who have more complicated issues outside of a simple tax return? For example, people having trouble getting the CTC.
   a. Afton Branche-Wilson:
      i. The tax prep providers that our Coalition funds are also VITA providers. They have extended their services to the end of the year. They are able to answer questions when residents call in to make appointments.
   b. Pablo Blank:
      i. VITA sites are usually only open during tax season because of funding. This year, we opened outside of the tax season because the CTC is important to the community.
      ii. We have volunteers that can help us, but not sure this is sustainable. We need more funding.
      iii. Partnering with other folks and organizations for CTC outreach and assistance is a good strategy.

4. Can parents or guardians without Social Security Numbers, but have children who have Social Security Numbers, qualify for the CTC?
   a. As long as the child has a Social Security Number, the parent or guardian claiming the child doesn’t need to have a Social Security Number. The parent or guardian can have a Social Security Number or an ITIN.

5. If you’re undocumented, how do you get the CTC?
   a. For anyone to get the CTC, the IRS needs to have your information. You can submit your information by filing a tax return or submitting your information to the Non-filer Portal. For the Non-filer Portal, you need to already have an ITIN, whereas for filing taxes, you can submit the ITIN application with your tax return.
6. What can be done if someone is in an abusive relationship and the person not living with the children got the Child Tax Credit?

   a. If you haven’t filed a 2020 tax return, file the tax return without including your abusive partner.
