Do I Qualify?

At tax time, you could owe less in taxes and get money back with the Earned Income Tax Credit and Child Tax Credit! If you worked in 2022, you may be eligible for these credits.

Public Benefits:

- Claiming these tax credits will not change your eligibility for federal benefits like SNAP (food stamps), SSI, Medicaid, cash assistance, or public housing.
- If you save your tax refund, it will not count against federally funded benefit program resource/asset limits for 12 months after the refund is received.

If you have children you could qualify for the EITC and CTC if:

Residency:

- ▶ Your children lived with you for more than half of 2022.

Age – children must be:

- ▶ EITC: 18 or under on December 31, 2022 (full-time students can be under 24 and children who have a permanent and total disability can be any age).
- ▶ CTC: 16 or under on December 31, 2022.

Income for 2022:

- ▶ For the federal CTC, if you earned more than $2,500, you could claim a credit of up to $2,000 per child.
- ▶ For the federal EITC, your earnings must be lower than the following limits:

Number of Children	Single workers with income less than:	Married workers with income less than:	EITC up to:

3 or more children	$53,057	$59,187	$6,935

It's not too late to claim 2021 expanded tax credits!

Because of the pandemic, the EITC and Child Tax Credit were expanded and made available to more people. That expansion has ended, BUT if you were eligible for the 2021 expanded EITC, the 2021 expanded Child Tax Credit, or any of the three rounds of stimulus checks and didn't claim them, it's not too late! Visit TaxOutreach.org/expanded to learn more.
